Q3. Do I need to cover myself with any other insurance or is the HSBC complimentary travel insurance sufficient?

Q6. Can I top up the insurance coverage?

As this is a complimentary group travel policy, we do not allow top up of coverage. However, you can consider buying a TravelSure Policy available from HSBC website to supplement your coverage.

Q7. Does this policy cover family members who are travelling together with the Insured Person?

No, this Complimentary Travel Insurance only covers the employee of HSBC's corporate customer who has had their Full Travel Expenses fully charged to any HSBC Corporate Card.

Q8. How does this complimentary insurance work if I already have an existing travel insurance from other insurance companies?

This insurance will pay on top of your existing insurance if it is a lump sum benefit (e.g. Travel Delay). For benefits which are on a reimbursement basis (e.g. loss of luggage), you can only claim the eligible expenses from either of the policies. If you have exhausted the sum insured from one policy, you can submit the remaining excess claim amount to the next policy subject to its terms and conditions.

Q9. Can my trip which commence from outside of Singapore be covered?

No, only trips commencing from Singapore are covered under this complimentary travel insurance.

Q10. How do I activate the complimentary travel insurance?

Simply charge the full travel fare for any employees of HSBC's corporate customer to the HSBC Corporate Card, including air tickets which have been paid jointly by your HSBC Card and air miles redemption to enjoy automatic coverage of this insurance.

Q11. What is defined as a full travel fare wef 1 September 2025?

It refers to the total fare for the public transport such as flight, rail or cruise for your trip that has fixed and established routes only, along with any accommodation and car rental expenses; all of which must be fully charged to your HSBC Card by the transport operator or travel agent. This also includes air tickets paid jointly by your HSBC Card and air miles redemption. However, it excludes rental vehicles, taxis and all modes of transportation that are chartered or arranged as part of a tour, even if the services are regularly scheduled.

Q12. I have used frequent flyer miles to redeem my air tickets but paid for the taxes with my HSBC card, will I be eligible for the complimentary travel insurance?

Yes, you will be eligible for complimentary travel insurance.

Q13. I am a foreigner and will be travelling back to my Home Country for vacation. Will I be covered?

Yes, the two-way trip must commence from Singapore.

Q14. Does this complimentary travel insurance provide coverage for COVID-19?

No, any event that is related to or in any way connected with Covid-19 is not covered by this complimentary travel insurance.

Q15. I am travelling after 1 September 2025. Will I eligible for the enhanced travel coverage which includes accommodation and car rental expenses?

The insurance coverage will be governed by the enhanced policy wordings (effective 1 September 2025). Thus, you will enjoy coverage that includes accommodation expenses as well as car rental expenses if your travel date falls on or after 1 September 2025.

Scenario:

- 1) You're scheduled to travel to Japan on 5 September 2025. On 3 September, a tsunami occurred and necessitated the evacuation of the location where your hotel was prebooked. You cancelled your entire trip, which includes a rental car, on the same day.

Outcome: Claimable

If your travel fares, prepaid accommodation and car rental costs were charged to your HSBC credit card, you can claim your travel fares, prepaid accommodation and car rental costs since the cancellation is due to a covered event.

- 2) You're scheduled to travel to Bali from 30 August to 3 September 2025. On 29 August, a volcano erupted near the location where your hotel was prebooked. You cancelled your entire trip, which includes a rental car, on the same day.

Outcome: Non-claimable

The enhanced travel coverage, which includes reimbursement for rental car and accommodation expenses, only takes effect from 1 September 2025. Since the trip is scheduled to begin on 30 August, any pre-booked hotel and car rental expenses incurred on that date are not eligible for cover, even if they were fully charged to an HSBC card.
